Academic Requirements for Participation

In order for students to participate in extracurricular activities, the Board of Education of Prince George's County Public Schools shall require students in middle and high school to earn an overall quarter average of at least 2.0 for the quarter preceding the start or the continuation of participation in extracurricular activities. In addition to this requirement, students in middle school may not have any Es on their report cards. Beginning with 2007-2008 school year, students in high school may not have any Es on their report card.

If a course is repeated in summer or evening school, the new grade will replace the existing grade for purposes of determining eligibility only. If a course is taken for original credit in summer or evening school, that grade will be averaged with existing grades for purposes of determining eligibility.

The Board of Education is committed to ensuring high academic standards for all students. There will be no waivers of the 2.0 academic requirement to participate in extracurricular activities.
