

Is Your Child Academically Prepared To Get Into College?

Current national educational statistics state that too many students are not academically prepared to attend college. All of the new state test requirements for graduation are a sign, indicating that students are not performing well in core subjects, such as English, Math, Reading & Science. Don't let your child be another statistic; prepare them for academic success. Help them fulfill their dreams of attending college, and receiving scholarship money.

College Readiness - SAT/ACT Math Tutoring

*Academic Math Prep

*Math Tutoring for SAT/ACT/ College Placement Exam Review

Camp Dates & Hours

Tuesdays – April 29 thru June 10, 2008

6:30p – 8:00p

$25 per session

1300 Mercantile Lane
Suite 100L
Largo, Md.

Lead Instructor: James Faction, M.S.E.C.E.

He has been tutoring various topics in mathematics and science since 1997.

These math tutoring sessions are under the direction of:

Ms. Carla Dickerson

Ms. Dickerson is responsible for generating over 4 million dollars in scholarships
She is a former college counselor for the Prince George's Co. Public Schools

Have Questions? Call: 240-216-3578

Email: dickersonscholarshiphelp@yahoo.com for further information
And/Or visit www.collegereadinesscamp.com for directions to the camp