U.S. OLYMPIAN AND CONGRESSMAN JOIN TOGETHER TO INSPIRE MIDDLE SCHOOL STUDENTS TO MAKE POSITIVE DECISIONS

WHO: Congressman Steny Hoyer (District 5)
Apolo Ohno, 2010 U.S. Olympic Medalist
Dwight D. Eisenhower Middle School eighth-graders

WHAT: “Act, Listen and Learn” Program

WHEN: Tuesday, April 20, 2010 • 2-3 p.m.

WHERE: Dwight D. Eisenhower Middle School • Cafeteria
13725 Briarwood Drive, Laurel

BACKGROUND:

Congressman Steny Hoyer, representative of Congressional District 5 in Maryland and House Majority Leader, will be joined by Apolo Ohno, speed skater and eight-time Olympic medalist, to give a special presentation to Dwight D., Eisenhower Middle School students as part of the “Act, Listen and Learn” program.

The program encourages teens to make positive decisions in their lives, and also addresses the issue of underage drinking. More than 300 Dwight D. Eisenhower eighth-graders will take part in the hour-long assembly, and all other students will view the program as it is televised throughout the school.

-30-