BACKGROUND:

Prince George's County Board of Education, along with Prince George's County Public Schools, will host a ribbon cutting ceremony tomorrow to celebrate new school construction at Laurel High School.

The new two-story classroom addition features 8 general classrooms, 4 science classrooms, 4 Special Education classrooms, Midi Keyboard Lab, ROTC classroom, and Counseling and Peer Mediation offices. The new 800-seat auditorium includes a black box theatre, music classrooms, and a child development classroom.

Cost of construction totaled $28 million with $6.6 million in state funding and 21.5 million in County funding. Tours of the new facilities will be available following the ribbon cutting.
