DISCUSSION ON PHASE 2 BOUNDARY REVIEW PROCESS CONTINUES THROUGH PUBLIC HEARINGS

Prince George’s County Public Schools will hold three public hearings in November and one in December to continue to solicit community input on Phase 2 of the boundary review process. The Phase 2 boundary review continues the process started last spring to address overcrowding and underutilization of schools, as well as ensures equal access to choice programs.

The Superintendent’s proposed plan was heard as a first reader by the Board of Education on November 12. The proposal and other documents are available for the public to review on the Prince George’s County Public Schools Web site at www.pgcps.org.

Members of the community can share their input on the proposal by attending one of the four public hearings scheduled as follows:

Monday, November 16 • 6:30 p.m. • Bowie High School
15200 Annapolis Road, Bowie

Tuesday, November 17 • 7:30 p.m. (NEW TIME) • Northwestern High School
7000 Adelphi Road, Hyattsville

Wednesday, November 18 • 7 p.m. • Sasscer Administration Building, Board Room
14201 School Lane, Upper Marlboro

Tuesday, December 1 • 6:30 p.m. • Frederick Douglass High School
8000 Croom Road, Upper Marlboro

Residents may sign up to speak at the public hearings by calling 301-780-5909 or logging onto www.pgcps.org and registering on the “Phase 2 Public Hearing Sign-Up” link. All registrations must be received by 12 noon on the date of perspective meetings. Spanish language interpretation will be available at the November 17 public hearing.

Prince George’s County Public Schools looks forward to full community participation in this important discussion. The public hearings will be replayed on Comcast Channel 96 and Verizon Channel 38, as well as available on the PGCPS system Web site.
