	Update provided: Janine shared that the initial Fresh Start proposal from Kaiser Permanente - the targeted chef did not want to do a live cooking demonstration Moved on to Plan B: a company that will offer a live presentation Nycal: February 15th date is scheduled; 5 schools with 400 families will be engaged; the goal is to help families get creative ideas for cooking healthy meals on a budget. The vendor is “21st Century Expo Group.” Families will receive a box of materials and receive a one-hour live cooking demonstration. A contract is needed - so February 16th might not be feasible as Purchasing needs to approve the work. Scope of work needed and their charges outlined. $7,400 total cost - details read by Nycal:Food and Nutrition Event Overview.pdf Work will be supported by a grant from Giant Foods. Motion: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) Dr. Williams-Horton moved that we move forward with the initiative but moved to March = “March Madness(?)” 2) Seconded by Dr. Windsor 3) Vote taken: Ayes 11 Nays 0
