

COLLEGE OF EDUCATION

New M.Ed! “Cultural Responsive Teacher Leadership (CRTL)”

Highlights

- Complete Program in 12 months
- Promotes equity, access and inclusivity
- Two years of teaching experience required

The CRTL Program is designed to increase pathways and opportunities for teachers to exercise leadership by elevating the teacher voice to inform and develop policy and practice and by expanding existing efforts to steer systemic improvements to benefit student learning all while supporting them to continue meeting the needs of the students they serve and teach. Graduates will also be positioned as teacher-leaders with the option to pursue career advancements as an Educational Specialist (e.g., Mentor Teacher, Curriculum Developer, Content-Area Specialist, School Department Head, Curriculum Supervisor, or Team Leader). Aspirants will create an innovative capstone project aligned with the NEA Teacher Leader Standards.
