Remembering 9/11

Maryland Senator Ben Cardin and Superintendent Millard House II joined students at Eleanor Roosevelt High School today to reflect on the September 11 terrorist attacks.

Cardin challenged students to embrace public service “whether as a school teacher, firefighter, wearing the uniform of our nation or being active in your community.”

Estudios universitarios a su alcance
(A College Education is Within Your Reach)

A partnership between the University of Maryland and Prince George's County Public Schools, we invite students and families to join us at Estudios Universitarios a su Alcance (A College Education is Within Your Reach) to be held on Saturday, Sept. 23 from 9 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. at the University of Maryland, Edward St. John Building. The event is held in Spanish, with interpretation available in English.

The day of workshops is designed for parents to understand the process of accessing and paying for college and for their students to know what they need to do to make their education goals a reality. The event also includes a college and community fair, as well as guided campus tours.
