Moving Forward with School Construction

This week, the Prince George’s County Board of Education voted to approve Prince George’s County Education & Community Partners as the preferred builder for the Alternative Construction Finance (ACF) plan to build six new schools. This decision follows the recommendation of CEO Dr. Monica Goldson to select the developer as the next step in addressing the school system’s aging school buildings through an innovative construction program.

Thanks to Our Bus Drivers!
National School Bus Safety Week is a reminder to keep safety at the forefront! Thanks to our bus drivers for keeping the focus on safety — and for delivering meals across our communities during distance learning. You are appreciated!

Virtual PGCPS Hall of Fame Gala: November 6

The Excellence in Education Foundation will host a virtual PGCPS Hall of Fame Gala Friday, Nov. 6 on WJLA 24 Hour News at 7 p.m. The event will re-air on Sunday, Nov. 8 on ABC7 at noon.

In the Spotlight

PGCPS Pride

Hollywood Elementary School teacher Jacqueline Sank is a standout employee according to her colleagues. Sank, known as the technology guru extraordinaire, has helped students and staff by creating tutorial videos and working one-on-one with staff to address their individual needs. Not to mention, she is still able to provide engaging lessons to her third-grade students.

Friendly High School teacher Dr. Troy Niskey continues to work hard while showing dedication and patience during distance learning. Sterling and Maxine Jones applaud him for motivating their daughter to do her best and for his willingness to try new things to reach his students from a distance.

Media Specialists Share Resources to Support Distance Learning

Library Media Specialists Verleta Taylor, Catherine Francoeur and Coquette Petrella recently participated in Community Conversations with the Prince George’s County Memorial Library System. They shared information on virtual learning and how media specialists are available to help staff, students and parents with resources to support distance learning, including free tutoring and ebooks.

#TeacherTuesday: Sharing Distance Learning Tips
Accokeek Academy teacher Yolanda Body discusses making learning fun through innovation.

Capitol Heights Elementary School teacher Bridget McCoy offers advice on using your Zoom background to post important information.
