

News Release: PGCPS Student Athlete Selected to Play in U.S. Army All- American Bowl

December 23, 2014

For Immediate Release

CONTACT:

Office of Communications

301-952-6001

communications@pgcps.org (<mailto:communications@pgcps.org>)

UPPER MARLBORO, MD – Isaiah Prince, student at Eleanor Roosevelt High School has been selected to play in the U.S. Army All-American Bowl. Prince, who plays offensive line, will have the opportunity to play with other outstanding high school athletes across the east and west coast in January 2015, marking the 15th-anniversary of the Bowl.

"Congratulations to Isaiah Prince for this great accomplishment," said Reginald McNeill, principal of Eleanor Roosevelt High School. "Isaiah will not only represent his school but Prince George's County Public Schools as he plays with the best of the best student athletes. We are so proud of him."

The U.S. Army All-American Bowl is the nation's premier high school All-American game, featuring the best 90 players in an annual East vs. West matchup every January in San Antonio's Alamodome. The 2015 U.S. Army All-American Bowl will take place on January 3, 2015, at 1:00pm ET/12:00 CT. The Army Bowl will be broadcast live on NBC.

-30-

Prince George's County Public Schools (PGCPS), one of the nation's 20th largest school districts, has 201 schools and centers, more than 133,000 students and nearly 20,000 employees. The school system serves a diverse student population from urban, suburban and rural communities located in the Washington, DC suburbs. PGCPS is nationally recognized for college and career-readiness programs that provide students with unique learning opportunities, including dual enrollment and language immersion.