

News Release: Statement from Prince George's County Public Schools on the Death of NeShante Davis

---

February 3, 2016

For Immediate Release

CONTACT:

Office of Communications

301-952-6001

communications@pgcps.org ( <mailto:communications@pgcps.org> )

UPPER MARLBORO, MD – All of us at Prince George's County Public Schools are deeply saddened by the loss of NeShante Davis and her young child. Crisis teams are available at the school for all of our students, staff and their families as long as they need it. The district will do all it can to support the school community at Bradbury Heights Elementary School. Our thoughts and prayers are with the family of NeShante Davis.

-30-

Prince George's County Public Schools (PGCPS), one of the nation's 20th largest school districts, has 201 schools and centers, more than 133,000 students and nearly 20,000 employees. The school system serves a diverse student population from urban, suburban and rural communities located in the Washington, DC suburbs. PGCPS is nationally recognized for college and career-readiness programs that provide students with unique learning opportunities, including dual enrollment and language immersion.