Hello all,

IT announced that Oracle may be down for a short time early the morning of March 12. They expect to have it back up by 9:30am.

Sick and Safe leave balances were corrupted but have been fixed. If employees are seeing a difference, please let them know current balances are the correct balance.
If anyone continues to have issues submitting time thru Self Service, please ask them to send screenshots of errors and screens prior to errors so I can troubleshoot.

Please keep up with time entry daily. Daily entry will lessen the effect of any absences by timekeeper.
